AMERICANS CONTINUE STOCKHOLM TRIUMPHS

MOVE MADE TO HEAD KUHIO

Republicans Getting Busy Now. Won't "Let Him Go," After All

Weeks of inaction in Republican ranks have been succeeded by an eleventh-hour movement to head off Delegate Kuhio in his announced program of seeking Republican or independent endorsement of a platform openly opposing Gov. Frear.

Up to within a few days ago Republican leaders who have opposed Kuhio's anti-Frear fight in the past, or who more recently have found themselves unable to follow the delegate in the lengths to which he is going, were inclined to sit back and allow Kuhio and his followers to go their way unchecked.

This attitude has been suddenly changed, and consequently there is a lot of interest being taken in the Republican precinct club nominations tonight. This morning Republican leaders who were active in the April convention were busily engaged in stirring up interest.

They have two objects in view. One is to get the party forces limbered up and awake to the fact that some hard work is to be done this fall. The other object is to find a man who can lead the Republicans ahead in a progressive campaign, keep the party out of non-essential issues and unite the best men and best elements for efficient government.

Rumors of "feeling" put out in various directions for possible nominees as delegates were rife today, as well as rumors that the Republican leaders are trying to unite on a leader-in-chief and a mutually satisfactory program for the fall campaign. This will develop, it is expected, within the next few days.

Just what position the "Progressives" like George R. Carter and A. L. C. Atkinson are going to take is a matter of much discussion also. Both men are admittedly valuable to Hawaii. They themselves are waiting for more definite news from the mainland as to what part Hawaii will be assigned in the Progressive convention. In case Hawaii does not secure delegates to the convention, the Territory's part in the national campaign is practically over. What application of the "Progressive" principles, as they brought back from Chicago, will be made to local issues also is a matter of much speculation here.

INTEREST WAKES LATE IN NOMINATIONS FOR PRECINCT CLUB OFFICERS

Tonight the first real action of the Republican party in this year's campaign for Territorial and county elective officers will take place, when the precinct clubs will nominate candidates for club officers for a term of two years, to be elected a week hence excepting where there are no more nominees than officers to be filled.

Very little interest in anywise exciting appears to be taken in the event. So far as heard there is no announced fight on for control of the organization in any precinct. Many of the retiring executives have not even thought worth while to advertise when their respective clubs are to hold their elections.

However, there was more interest manifested today and more evidence of actual organization.

Following is a list of the retiring

Charge Politics Behind Russian Immigrant Check

Member of Board Says Not Purely Matter of Labor Fitness

A political motive was plainly charged as being at the bottom of the notice from the Planters' Association to the Board of Immigration, received at yesterday's meeting of the latter body, that the planters did not want any more Russian labor, but desired all the Portuguese and Spanish people the Board could bring into the Territory.

"We do not want any politics mixed up with the business of the Board, as I said at the meeting yesterday," remarked F. L. Waldron this morning. He was contradicting the report in the morning paper, which stated that the Board had decided to stop Russian immigration.

As stated in the report on another page, the Board directed its secretary to address a circular letter to the managers of plantations, to ascertain directly from them just what they think about Russians as laborers. The recall of Dr. Clark from his investigations in Manchuria, which are related to a contract with the International Immigration and Colonization Association, does not necessarily involve, according to what Mr. Waldron says, the abandonment of Russian immigration. "The Board is merely feeling its way toward a change of plans with regard to bringing in more Russians," Mr. Waldron said. "Plantation managers are the best authorities on the fitness and desirability of Russians for work on the plantations, and we want to have their opinions on the matter direct. The wholesale condemnation of the Russians from the planters' bureau in Honolulu looks much like politics, as I had no hesitation in saying openly at the meeting yesterday."

BRECKONS IS SUSTAINED ON 8-HOUR LAW

Sustaining the contention of U. S. District Attorney R. W. Breckons that the new eight-hour law will apply to Territorial work as well as to Federal employment, the official today produced a copy of the measure, known as House Bill 9061, which was passed by the House of Representatives and was later passed by the Senate after a few minor amendments, it is understood, were not made with reference to its application to Territories.

The law, as finally enacted and approved by the President, has not reached Honolulu yet, but the measure presented to the Senate reads in part as follows:

"Be it enacted, That every contract hereafter made to which the United States, any Territory, or the District of Columbia is a party, and every such contract made for or on behalf of the United States, or any Territory or said District, which may require or involve the employment of laborers or mechanics shall contain a provision that no laborer or mechanic doing any part of the work contemplated by the contract, in the employ of the contractor or any subcontractor contracting for any part of said work contemplated, shall be required or permitted to work more than eight hours in any one calendar day upon such work; and every such contract shall stipulate a penalty for each violation of such provision in such contract for $5 for each laborer or mechanic for every calendar day in which he shall be required or permitted to labor more than eight hours upon said work."

PEARL HARBOR PACIFIC KEY SAYS COWLES

Admiral Interested in the Proposed Army Defense Plans for Oahu

MORE GUNS NEEDED FOR NAVAL RENDEZVOUS

Gen. Macomb May Postpone Furlough as Result of New Order

That Pearl Harbor is the key to the mid-Pacific, and that any plan for making Oahu "impregnable" should start with adequate fortifications for the great naval base, is the opinion of naval authorities here. The Washington dispatch stating that a board of army-officers had been ordered to convene here July 31, to consider a plan of defense for Hawaii, published in the Star-Bulletin yesterday afternoon, has made Pearl Harbor defenses a very lively issue, and the action of the coming board in this particular is being widely discussed in service circles. In all probability the findings will be confidential, and will be filed away until sprung upon Congress with the request for the necessary appropriation to carry out the scheme for an impregnable Oahu, but in the meantime speculation is rife, and interest in the probable action of the board keen.

"I believe that there is urgent need of strong fortifications at Pearl Harbor," said Admiral Cowles this morning. "The mortar battery, and the 12-inch guns at Fort Kamehameha are well enough as far as they go, but the naval rendezvous must be more strongly fortified. As to the 6-inch and 8-inch batteries planned for Pearl Harbor, they are of course only for mine field defense or for use against small vessels lying close in. A chain of fortifications for the whole island is highly desirable, but I think special consideration should be given to Pearl Harbor right away."

Admiral Cowles said that he had received no intimation that the navy was to work in conjunction with the army in planning the defenses of Oahu and the Hawaiian Islands. That it is of course a matter of common interest between the two arms of the

SPEEDS HIS AUTO ALONG FORT STREET; CRASHES INTO HACK

With two auto collisions within ten days in which two men were injured, one fatally, a machine bearing the number 716, assigned to David Crockett, shot up Fort street at a high rate of speed yesterday afternoon and struck hack No. 185, which the driver was turning at a point halfway in the block between King and Hotel streets. The hack contained two women.

The auto struck the rear wheel of the hack, and was damaged to the extent of a twisted mud-guard and broken lamp. The hack was not injured but the women occupants were badly frightened.

According to eye-witnesses, the driver of the auto was violating the speed ordinance on a narrow street and attempted to shoot through a narrow space between the rear wheels of the hack and another auto standing at the curb.

Quite a crowd of spectators gathered, following the accident and there were a number of interesting comments on the apparent failure of the authorities to enforce the anti-speed ordinance.

TAX RECEIPTS INCREASE OVER HALF MILLION

Tax receipts for the Territory for the fiscal year just closed will show an increase of $500,000 to $600,000 over the receipts of the preceding year. This is the estimated figure set by Governor Frear based on the partial annual statement of the Territorial auditor.

He says the statement will show that the amount expended by the Territory during the same period has been greater, but that it is greatly overbalanced by the increase in receipts.

The auditor's report is not completed. It will be finished in about a week, and as soon as it is submitted, the Governor will begin work on his annual report.

The figures given above include the receipts from insurance and inheritance taxes.

Progressive Leaders Planning to Organize

FORMER GOV. GEO. R. CARTER.

HON. A. L. C. ATKINSON.

Bringing back from Chicago the Rooseveltian slogans that were sounded there against bossism, ex-Governor Carter and A. L. C. Atkinson yesterday received cabled permission to organize Hawaii on "Progressive lines." Today plans were on foot for an executive committee of supporters of the movement, and for a meeting next Monday to get the third party started in Hawaii. Carter and Atkinson take the attitude that there is no longer a national Republican party.

It was reported this morning that at a meeting of the stevedores organization last night the members had endorsed Roosevelt and the third party movement in Hawaii.

Palmyra Island to be Sold But Frazier is not Interested

Billboard King Willing to Post Notice of Sale for Fifty Dollars Until He Learned Where Bills Were to Go Up — Then He Balked.

Palmyra Island will be offered for sale at auction at Morgan's salesroom on July 31, by order of the circuit court probate judge. This decreed sale is to settle the interests of certain minors in the property adjudicated as existing.

E. L. Schwarzbarg, the auctioneer and real estate man of Morgan's, in connection with this affair nearly placed C. R. Frazier, the billboard king, in a dilemma this morning. In presence of a Star-Bulletin man, whom the auctioneer roped in as a witness, Schwarzbarg asked Frazier what his charge would be for posting a notice of a guardian's sale anywhere within the city and county of Honolulu.

Frazier's mental calculation evidently only reached to such remote points on the island of Oahu as Kahuku, Waiānae and Waimanalo, and perhaps discounting the trouble and expense involved in going abroad as far as any of those points with a vision of a pleasant auto ride, answered that he thought he could undertake the contract for fifty dollars.

"Well," quickly responded the auctioneer, "I am going to sell Palmyra Island at guardian's sale on July 31, and want to put up a poster announcing it on that island."

Frazier's vision now extending across 1200 miles over a waste of water caused him forthwith to hedge on the contract. He did not want to be a welsher, but—well, Palmyra Island was too long a shot for fifty plunks.

KAHANAMOKU FUND JUMPS

Watch the Duke Kahanamoku fund grow!

Get in and help it grow! The movement for a substantial gift to Duke Kahanamoku, Jr., who is winning fame for himself and Hawaii by his marvellous swimming at the Olympic games, is getting real results right from the outset.

The fund started when two admirers of Duke up in Hana, Maui, sent $15 to the Star-Bulletin and suggested that Duke be given a house and lot on his return from Stockholm. A further suggestion has been made that a committee be named to handle the fund, secure the house and lot, place the property in trust for Duke and make the occasion of his homecoming a big "hookupu" or celebration.

Down at the fishmarket yesterday afternoon and today the contributions to the fund began to pour in. James H. Boyd, market inspector, circulating among the stalls with the following petition:

"We, the undersigned, hereby subscribe the amounts set opposite our names toward a gift for Duke Kahanamoku 2nd, expressing our aloha and appreciation for his success at the Olympic games at Stockholm, Sweden."

How the money did flow in! Dollars, fifty-cent pieces and quarters—they all counted steadily up, and this morning Mr. Boyd came to the Star-Bulletin office with $33.75 that had been given to help encourage Kahanamoku and clean sportsmanship in Hawaii.

Dr. Hutchinson of the Kaimuki Land Company yesterday afternoon notified the Star-Bulletin that the company will donate $50 on the purchase of a lot and another generous offer was put down.

This morning the Silent Barber Shop, of which Mr. Joseph Fernandez is proprietor, came through with $2.50 to help the fund.

The Honolulu Star-Bulletin, believing heartily in the idea of the fund for Duke, subscribes $25 to the fund and wishes it all success. Duke is making good in every way, and the Star-Bulletin stands for clean sport and the encouragement of it in Hawai and is very glad to set its name down for $25.

The fund is barely started, but it's off to a good start, and what is more, it is a popular movement. Duke's great work at Stockholm deserves to be rewarded by something more than words, and the Star-Bulletin is hearing every day from people who think that the idea of a house and lot is a fine one, the property to be placed in trust and the gift made when Duke gets back from the big games.

Here's the list of those who subscribed to the fund on the list turned in this morning by Mr. Boyd:

U. S. MAN SETS JUMPING RECORD

[Associated Press Cable]

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, July 12.—Americans carried off most of the honors today, repeating their triumphs of the past few days.

Today's competition was marked by the great broad-jumping of Gutter-son, the University of Vermont lad, who leaped 24 feet 11 inches and a fraction, setting a new record. The former record was held by Frank Leone of the Chicago Athletic Club, who covered 24 feet 6 1/2 inches at London in the games four years ago.

Americans today won four out of five heats in the semifinals of the 400-meter race. Kelly, the University of Southern California hurdler, won the 110-meter hurdle race in 15 1/10 seconds, Wendell, the Eastern collegian, being second and Hawkins of the University of Oregon third.

UPSET IN DISCUS. In the discus throw Finland's entry won first, with Byrd of Adrian College, Mich., second, and Jim Duncan, holder of the world's record, no better than third. This event was a big upset of American hopes.

Several events are on the card today in which America may not have entries. The pentathlon will probably see Americans entered, but in the fencing and riding there are events in which the U. S. has no entry.

In the cross-country race the first three men to finish were Swedish athletes, with Patton of America fourth.

In the five-man team race, running 3000-meters, America was first and Finland second.

When's a Wharf not a Wharf? Judge Undertakes to Find Out

"When is a wharf not a wharf and if a part of the wharf isn't a part of a wharf how can it be called part of a wharf and who has the right to call it part of a wharf if they don't know that it is part of the wharf, or if it isn't part of a wharf?"

This is a simplified, elucidated form of a question involved in the trial of Thos. Blackwell, a chauffeur charged with violating the harbor regulations relating to driving automobiles on the wharves. Blackwell was arrested on July 5 for the offense which is alleged to have occurred at the Mauna Kea wharf on the afternoon of July 3 and his case was continued before Judge Monsarrat this morning.

Attorney Andrews was cross-examining Wharfinger Calvert, complaining witness, when the question arose which broke up the trial for the day. Calvert had given his definition of a wharf as a "projection built out into the water on piers, at which steamers are landed."

"Was the place where the violation is alleged to have occurred built on piers?" asked Attorney Andrews.

"It is a part of the wharf."

"But was it built on piers?" reiterated Andrews.

The complaining witness evaded a direct answer again and Judge Monsarrat interposed with the question: "But how could it be part of the wharf and not be built on piers?"

"But how can it be part of the wharf when it isn't part of the wharf and who has the right to say that it is part of the wharf or whether it is part of the wharf or not?" replied Andrews.

And the question was settled by adjourning court to the waterfront, where Judge Monsarrat could see for himself whether the defendant had driven on part of the wharf or not. The case has been continued until tomorrow.

ALAMEDA CREW TO MAKE HONOLULU PILGRIMAGE

SUGAR

As was generally expected, the Alameda crew won the senior barge race July 4, and with it the right to come to Honolulu in September and contest for the six-oared barge championship of the Pacific Coast.

The San Francisco Chronicle says: The first race was the feature of the day. The winner of this, the senior barge, goes to Honolulu, and cheers greeted the Alameda crew as it slipped in a good three lengths ahead of its rival, San Diego. The four boats, Alameda, San Diego, Ariel and South End, got away together. Alameda pulled up a trifle, with San Diego close behind, and pulling strong, Alameda never lost the lead, but kept increasing the distance, and by the time the turn was reached there was clear water between them. Coming back, the San Diego's tired badly and began to drag their oars. The coxswain, also lost his head and steered the boat all over the course. Alameda never faltered, but kept up to the finish, three lengths to the good. The Dolphins of this city won third place from the South Ends by a bare nose.
